CM Bommai in city

Mysuru, June 8 (RK&BCT)- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai arrived at Mysore Airport in Mandakalli this morning to attend a slew of programmes in city.

Contrary to the earlier decision where CM Bommai was supposed to chair a high-level meeting in Mysuru today to finalise the preparations for the International Day of Yoga (June 21) where PM Modi will participate, the CM preferred to attend a programme at Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Ashram on Nanjangud Road and then head straight to Lalitha Mahal Palace where a Vibhag Pramukh meeting was organised in the run-up to the elections to the Legislative Council from the South Graduates Constituency.

The CM did not hold the high-level meeting in Mysuru as he had already conducted a review meeting in Bengaluru yesterday and passed on instructions to the Mysuru District Administration to begin preparations to accommodate 15,000 people inside the Mysore Palace. Also, the State Government has released Rs. 10 crore to give a facelift to the roads on which PM Modi's cavalcade will travel on June 20 and June 21.

At the Vibhag Pramukh meeting, leaders and party office-bearers from Mysuru, Mandya, Kodagu, Chamarajanagar and Hassan were present and the CM took feedback on the election strategy to be adopted to ensure the victory of party candidate M.V. Ravishankar.

The media was not allowed inside when the CM was interacting.

BJP State President Nalin Kumar Kateel, District Minister S.T. Somashekar, Ministers K. Gopalaiah, K.C. Narayanagowda, V. Somanna, former Union Minister and current Chamarajanagar MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha and others were present.

At Airport

Addressing reporters soon after his arrival at Mysore Airport, the CM said that the State Government was in the process of appointing a Lok Ayukta and there will be no further delay in it.

Expressing confidence that all the BJP candidates will win in the Rajya Sabha elections, he said he has no idea about the strategies of Congress and the JD(S).

On the Tamil Nadu Government's move to obstruct the Mekedatu drinking water project, the CM said, "Going to Supreme Court is not the right thing to do. The Court had issued us a notice and we have replied efficiently. Only the Supreme Court-constituted Cauvery Water Management Authority has the final authority to decide what projects must be taken up along the Cauvery Basin and what projects must be shelved."

Sri Ganapathy Swamiji donates ambulance to Cheluvamba Hospital

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai symbolically handing over the ambulance key to MMC&RI Principal Dr. K.R. Dakshayani and Cheluvamba Hospital Medical Superintendent Dr. M.R. Savitha at Ganapathy Ashram premises in city this morning as Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji, Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji, District Minister S.T. Somashekar, MLAs S.A. Ramdas and L. Nagendra and others look.

Mysuru, June 8 (RKB&SSM)- Avadhoota Datta Peetham's Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji, who celebrated his 80th birthday recently, donated an ambulance worth Rs. 28 lakh to Cheluvamba Hospital in city this morning.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, who visited Ganapathy Ashram on Nanjangud Road while travelling from Mysore Airport, handed over the ambulance key to Mysore Medical College and Research Institute (MMC&RI) Principal Dr. K.R. Dakshayani and Cheluvamba Hospital Medical Superintendent Dr. M.R. Savitha at a programme held in front of Universal Prayer Hall in the Ashram premises.

Speaking on the occasion, the CM said that he was scheduled to visit the Ashram on May 22 for Sri Ganapathy Swamiji's 80th birthday celebrations but could not make it. "Ganapathy Swamiji is a religious person who has a lot of faith in God. He has made great contributions in the field of education and health sectors by setting up various institutions," Bommai added.

"For Loka Kalyana, Sri Swamiji is doing one crore Dattatreya Mantra Japa and more than one lakh Mahalakshmi Mantra Japa. I personally have faith and immense belief that his prayers will have a good effect in the development of our State," the CM observed. Disclosing that he is a devotee of Lord Dattatreya, Bommai said that Bhakti means unconditional love without expecting anything in return. "We have to pray to God without any expectations as He knows what is right and what is wrong for us," Bommai noted.

Best performers from Schools will join PM Modi at Palace

Auto drivers, transgenders, HIV-infected, working class too will find representation

Mysuru, June 8 (MTY&BCT)- It will be a tight-rope walk for the District Administration as it has to finalise the list of 15,000 participants who will perform Yoga at the Mysore Palace along with Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the morning of June 21.

The final list has to be submitted to the State Government and the Union AYUSH Ministry by June 13, as per the directions issued by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai at a high-level review meeting held in Bengaluru yesterday.

Lobbying for a place in Palace had begun last week itself with many Yoga Schools, organisations, educational institutions and residents associations competing with each other. It will be a big task for the District Administration to finalise the list as everyone is seeking representation.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

GIVING AND GETTING BACK: Recently, on a cool evening, following a cloudburst, I decided to call on a close friend, staying close by. Before stepping out, I happened to see some sundry sweets at home, which I thought of sharing with her. Then I began scouting for those food-safe containers that I had carefully tucked away somewhere in the corner of a cupboard.

Since I couldn't instantly find them, I started considering at least some clean covers, for which I started trawling through heaps of them. Somewhere, I could sense some inscrutable guilt, stabbing inside, to give away sweets in such covers. Then I resolved, instead of having this guilt, hounding me, rather I hunt for those containers itself, which at last I was able to find.

Now, at my friend's place, coincidentally, she too had churned out some carrot-based sweet. Lo! While I was leaving her place, she packed a large amount of it, in same container, which had taken me eons to locate it! As I started ambling back to my abode, I started mulling. Maybe, this is what is called as karma! With sincerity, I had thought of sharing sweets with her in 'superior-quality' container, affixing supreme importance to safety/ hygiene. Lo! I got back more scrumptious stuff in the same container!

Newspaper vendor hacks credit card security codes

Buenos Aires: A newspaper vendor in Buenos Aires, Argentina, was recently arrested for "hacking" dozens of credit cards by developing Algorithm and using them to make small purchases.

Crime-fighting authorities in Argentina received a complaint about hundreds of unauthorised purchases, they were sure they were dealing with an organised hacking group. However, all leads pointed to the house of a 56-year-old newspaper vendor in the Buenos Aires town of Villa Madero. Upon searching the man's house, they found a small notebook containing a hand-written algorithm that had apparently allowed him to figure out the CVC (Card Verification Code) of his victims.

Deed error makes couple impossible to sell property

Candelo: A couple is seeing their retirement plans threatened by a 130-year-old deed error that makes it impossible to sell their property.

Peter and Cheryl Plowman have been living in the same house on Bega Street, in Candelo, on the New South Wales South Coast for 20 years. A few years back, they purchased the house next to them with the intention of selling it for a profit to fund their retirement. Now, after investing their savings in it, the Plowman's were shocked to learn that they won't be able to sell their property to anyone, because the paperwork drafted over a century ago, when the lots were first registered, states that their new house is built on a different lot.

Plowman couple reside in the fourth house along their street, which would logically make it Lot Four, only in the original deed it is marked Lot Three. When the lot deeds were originally drafted, sometime in the 1800s, the five lots on Bega Street were numbered 'one, two, four, three, five,' but the Plowmans had never bothered to check.

This practice prevents body from piling weight. Eating late also negatively impacts sleep.

Power shutdown by CESC troubling consumers

Sir,

It is quite disturbing to note that CESC, Mysuru, is resorting to power shutdown during day time for a quite a number of times in many areas of Mysuru city as well as surrounding rural areas (Star of Mysore dated June 2, 3, 4 and 5) with one day prior notice and thereby putting the power consumers, both domestic and industrial, to untold misery.

The hapless consumers can only voice their concerns at the so-called 'power consumers meet' convened by CESC now and then in a Zonewise manner.

My friend from Bengaluru and Chennai confided to me over phone that there is no power shutdown there even a single day for maintenance purposes. But in a small city like Mysuru, the public are made to suffer by frequent power outages due to adoption of obsolete power delivery technology by CESC.

Half-cut bodies of two women recovered in Mandya fields

One body was found near Arakere and another between Bebi Betta and K. Bettahalli

Srirangapatna, June 8 (Vinay Karekura&BCT)- Two incidents of grisly crime where semi-decomposed bodies of two women that have been cut from the torso have sent shockwaves in Mandya. The body parts from the hip were filled in big plastic bags and were discarded at two different places.

Both the bodies were recovered last evening in the fields. While one woman's body was found in Pandavapura Town Police limits, the other was found at Arakere Police limits.

Passers-by and farmers noticed a plastic bag with two legs protruding from it at a canal amidst sugarcane fields on the route from Bebi Betta and K. Bettahalli. The canal brings water to the fields from Bebi Kere. Shocked by their discovery, they informed Pandavapura Police.

Police said that the estimated age of the woman could be from 30 to 35 years and was in a semi-naked state. Both the legs were tightly bound together. The other body that was found at the CDS canal in Arakere village under Srirangapatna Police limits too was found in a similar condition and even here, the estimated age of the woman is 30 to 35 years.

Police teams from Srirangapatna and Pandavapura searched nearby areas for the remaining parts of the body but in vain. The Police suspect that the murders could have taken place at a single location as the condition of their bodies looked similar.

The body parts would have been brought to Arakere and Pandavapura in a vehicle to be dumped in the fields, they added.

Police added that by doing this, the murderers would be trying to conceal the identity of the women and also were trying to destroy evidence. Senior Police have visited the spot and two cases have been registered.

Man surrenders after strangulating daughter

Periyapatna, June 8 (Veeresh& KS)- In a case of suspected honour killing, a man allegedly killed his minor daughter by strangulating her and later walked into Periyapatna Police Station and surrendered before the Police.

The incident took place at a village in the taluk on Monday night. The deceased girl, who was pursuing her first year PUC was said to be in love with a boy belonging to a differed caste since two years. When the girl's parents came to know about their daughter's affair, a fight had taken place with the boy and the matter reached the Police Station, where the girl refused to go to her parents' house. Vijayendra calls for party unity amidst sloganeering in city

Mysuru, June 8 (MK,SBD &BCT)- Despite slogan-shouting in favour of BJP leader B.Y. Vijayendra from his supporters irking Housing Minister V. Somanna, the former called for unity among party workers and electing BJP leaders from Panchayat to Parliament for the overall development of the country.

Party workers, in their slogans, projected Vijayendra as the next CM and this irked Somanna who was visibly upset. The meeting was convened at a private hotel in the city to campaign for the party candidate M.V. Ravishankar in the ensuing elections to the Legislative Council from the South Graduates Constituency.

A large number of Vijayendra's supporters at the meeting shouted slogans in favour of their leader, who is also the son of former Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa. The supporters were shouting slogans even before Vijayendra entered the meeting hall. As Minister Somanna began his speech, the supporters again got up to go vocal. This upset Somanna who asked the supporters not to insult one leader in the name of supporting another leader.

Despite Somanna reminding the supporters that he has been elected five times as the MLA, Vijayendra's supporters did not stop but continued chanting "Vijayendra" slogans. Somanna appealed to them not to insult the party leaders who have worked for the party for decades.

Unable to control the crowd, Somanna yelled at them and urged them not to make Vijayendra a 'sacrificial lamb'. "Vijayendra will become what he has to become. There are rules and regulations in this party. Please understand and don't stoop to this level," Somanna appealed.

Sensing that the situation is going out of hand, Vijayendra, who had occupied a place on the dais, walked near Somanna and took up the mike to pacify the party workers. He appealed to them to remain quiet and said Somanna was also speaking good words about him and there is no reason for the party workers to be upset.

After the unrest settled, Vijayendra called for unity among the party workers and work towards the victory of BJP candidates from Panchayat to Parliament.

Heaping praises on Prime Minister Narendra Modi, he said that the eight-year BJP rule at the Centre was blemish-free and today there is international recognition for India.

In Karnataka too, former CM B.S. Yediyurappa has given good administration and is a role model for anyone who is entering politics. Likewise, the present CM Basavaraj Bommai too is working towards giving good governance, he said.

The BJP leader said that he and Somanna had come to Mysuru to seek support for Ravishankar and the party workers must put up a united front.

MP Pratap Simha, City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa, Zoo Authority of Karnataka Chairman L.R. Mahadevaswamy and others were present.

CM Basavaraj Bommai reviews preparations for mega event

Bengaluru, June 8 (UNI)- The participants at the Mysore Palace for the International Day of Yoga 2022 on June 21 will be limited to 15,000.

It's the country's main event on International Day of Yoga with Prime Minister Narendra Modi leading the celebrations performing yoga in the backdrop of the iconic Mysore Palace.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai reviewed the preparations for the mega event in Bengaluru yesterday. He instructed the Mysuru Deputy Commissioner (DC) to finalise the 15,000 participants by June 13. He asked the DC to ensure that the selection comprises people from all sections of the society as instructed by the Prime Minister's Office (PMO).

The Chief Minister wanted the officials to make arrangements for transport, snacks, drinking water and other facilities for the participants in perfect coordination with the Union Government. "Extend all the cooperation to the Union AYUSH Ministry, which is keen to organise an exhibition on Yoga on the occasion," Bommai instructed.

The State Government has constituted 14 committees including a Core Committee headed by the District in-Charge Minister for the smooth and successful conduct of the event. Bommai instructed the Police officials to ensure foolproof security during the PM's visit.

Ministers Dr. K. Sudhakar, S.T. Somashekar, K.C. Narayana Gowda, Chief Secretary Vandita Sharma and other senior officers were present.

Sri Ganapathy Swamiji, who too spoke, said that "Truth is life, it is everything. Dattatreya has three heads which indicates three different aspects of Srishti, preservation and destruction. Among all the avatars, Dattatreya avatar is the greatest."

Moved by this, Sri Ganapathy Swamiji decided to donate an ambulance for the wellness of women and children.

Best performers from Schools

The problem is compounded as it is not clear if the 15,000 participants will be spread out both inside and outside the Palace which is usually done during Dasara celebrations. As it is an event of national and international importance, representation must be given to all to perform in a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

The Education Department has asked all Schools in the District to practice Yoga every day so that the best performers can find a place in the Palace. "All the Schools under the guidance of Block Education Officers (North, South and Rural) have begun daily performance and the best performers will rehearse at the Mysore Palace on June 12 and 19 based on Common Yoga Protocol," DDPI Ramachandra Raje Urs told Star of Mysore this morning.

When asked about the number of students participating on June 21, the DDPI said that he has no information on that.

"If the District Administration asks 5,000 students we are ready and if they ask 10,000 also we are ready. Everything will be clear only after June 12 and at present, there is no visibility," he added.

Yoga Federation of Mysore President and GSS Foundation Head D. Srihari said that when Vikram Singh, Director, Ministry of AYUSH visited Mysuru recently, he had conveyed a message that a cross-section of the society will find representation on June 21.

"We were told that the Prime Minister was inclined to accommodate over 10,000 School children and youths during the main Yoga Day performance. The rest will include representations from all walks of the society like auto drivers, transgenders, HIV-infected children, Yoga Schools and the working class," he said.

Accordingly, Yoga practice sessions are being held for transgenders and HIV infected children. The District Administration has decided to select people from every profession following directions.

New Delhi, June 8 (Agencies)- With an aim to boost the UPI (United Payments Interface) platform and digital payments, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Wednesday allowed the linking of credit cards to the UPI platform.

It will begin with the Rupay credit cards, as they will be linked to the UPI platform. "This will provide additional convenience to users and enhance the scope of digital payments," RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das said.

UPI has become the most inclusive mode of payment in the country with over 26 crore users and 5 crore merchants on the platform. In May 2022, about 594 crore transactions amounting to Rs. 10.4 lakh crore were processed through UPI.

At present, UPI facilitates transactions by linking savings or current accounts through users' debit cards. With this new proposal, users can link their credit cards with UPI. Two out of five transactions that are happening now are non-cash and a recent report by digital payments company PhonePe and Boston Consulting Group said that by 2026, two-thirds of payment transactions will be digital.

Also, UPI transactions are at approximately nine times more than credit and debit card transactions in volume terms in FY22.

Quintessential Educationist Dr. B. Yashovarma

Remembering his legacy to the education field

By Bhamy V. Shenoy

It is not an easy task to write an obituary to a quintessential educationist Dr. B. Yashovarma, who passed away at a relatively young age of 67 on May 22, 2022.

He has worn several hats during his life — Botany scientist producing a Ph.D dissertation on 'Taxonomical and Ecological Study of Algae of Some Soils of Karnataka'; Principal of SDM College, Ujre from 1993 to 2015; Secretary of SDM Educational Society till his untimely demise; President of Mangalore University Principals Association; District Chairman of Rotary; National Joint Secretary, Bharatiya Jain Milan, Delhi; President, Belthangady Taluk Kannada Sahitya Parishat and many more.

Starting from 2010 till end of April this year, I had the good fortune to be in constant touch with him through e-mail. Last e-mail we shared was about three books — Global Warming, Hydrogen Revolution and Artificial Intelligence. I had suggested these three books which could be helpful to teachers and students at engineering colleges.

Though this was not his field, he had great interest to ensure good books should be made available to students and teachers. Over the years, each time I suggested some books he was appreciative of my efforts and asked the librarians to buy the books. It was in 2010, I first got introduced to him while promoting a new programme called "True Education" which I had developed at S V S College, Bantwal. He instinctively felt that his students would benefit from such a programme.

The objective of True Education programme was to (1) Ignite critical thinking in students, (2) Promote the reading of books and (3) Take an interest in solving societal problems. These were the three missing elements in our current education system which Dr. Yashovarma always wanted to promote. He took every effort to introduce them in SDM College. First it was Dr. Udayachand and later Sooryanarayan Bhat helped Dr. Yashovarma to implement True Education.

In addition, he also introduced two novel elements — asking students to write in a diary at least ten lines on any topic other than school subjects and having a mentoring programme by teachers by meeting with students and their parents every month. He also developed a novel strategy to ensure students spend at least some minimum amount of time in the library every week by installing a computer monitored system. Whenever I visited the SDM campus, it was amazing to see the library full of students. Dr. Yashovarma regularly received reports analysing the time spent by students in library. Such was his interest to encourage students to make use of the library.

Dr. B. Yashovarma

To promote True Education, I had visited several Colleges in Mysuru, Dakshina Kannada and Udupi districts. Many managements and teachers readily admitted that it is an excellent programme and it would help students. Professors of Regional College of Education in Mysuru praised it as a good pedagogical strategy to promote critical thinking. But for one College (Sarada Vilas Teachers College), no one took interest to implement the programme like SDM Ujre. This shows the interest and concern of Dr. Yashovarma to impart world class education and not just going after securing ranks or getting high percentage of students clearing the public exams. It is because of such efforts, SDM Ujre got the highest grading by NAAC in the State.

When the National Education Policy (NEP-2020) draft was discussed, Dr. Yashovarma took keen interest in getting ready to implement NEP in true spirit. It was as though he had been waiting all these years to implement excellent recommendations (autonomy to schools and teachers, less emphasis on rote driven examination system, emphasis on creative thinking, extra curricular activities, flexibility in choice of courses, etc.). In 2018, he organised a workshop for his teachers with the ambitious objective — to transform India's rote learning system which was imposed by our colonial rulers to produce clerks. Workshop discussed how to change the current system to produce world class thinkers, scientists, philosophers, administrators, and managers to contribute to India's sustainable development. This was precursor to NEP. When NEP was finally adapted, Dr. Yashovarma organised a seminar on how his institutions can contribute to its implementation in true spirit.

Despite being the Secretary of SDME which has 56 institutions, he always was prompt in responding to e-mails and taking interest in any new idea or concept to improve educational standards. He is a perfect example of the aphorism, "Busy people always have the time to do the right things." When he learnt about the new programmes started by Pratham Mysuru like "Parents as Teachers" or "Student Mentoring Programme," he was ready to get details and keen to experiment in SDME institutions. He never suffered from the "disease" affecting several institutions of "not invented here" and was always ready to learn from others.

Being a scientist himself, Dr. Yashovarma was always looking for ideas to promote curiosity and inventiveness in young students. When he learned about a book, "Class: A Life-Changing Teacher, His World-Changing Kids and the Most Inventive Classroom in America," he immediately ordered the book. Even before knowing about the Professor's strategy to promote inventiveness, in his own schools, Dr. Yashovarma had created an eco-system to incubate new ideas by his students.

One way to pay tribute to Dr. Yashovarma and remember his significant contribution to education field is to have a memorial lecture by a distinguished speaker every year. Another way which is also equally befitting his ideals is to name some of the libraries in SDME institutions after him. He always looked forward to learn about the outstanding books to make them available to students.

Goodbye Dr. Yashovarma. We will miss your physical presence, while always remembering your humility, kindness and concern to help students.

Singer with a golden voice

Shree Krishna Gaana Sabha of Gokulam had arranged a fine music concert in memory of Prof. Y.T. Thathachari on the 21st of May. The young artiste was Vidwan Siva Ganesh from Madhurai.

Many senior musicians have groomed Siva Ganesh to become an excellent vocalist. Blessed with a golden voice, Siva Ganesh is a committed classical singer who follows the tradition laid down by his Gurus. A strong base of classicism, perfect shruthi alignment and a rich imaginative manodharma makes his singing attractive.

Siva Ganesh was accompanied by Vidushi C.V. Shruthi on the violin, Vidwan P.S. Shreedhar on the mridanga and Vidwan V.S. Ramesh on the morching. Siva Ganesh had planned this concert well with rare compositions and rare ragas. His enthusiastic singing maintained its brightness till the end.

He began the concert with a self composed Varna in Raga Kanakangi 'Gananaatham' set to Adi Taala . The presentation in two speeds was also decorated with a frill of Kalpana swaras. 'Shree Jalandharamashrayamyaham', a fine composition by Sri Jayachamarajendra Wadiyar in raga Gambheera Naata was a majestic piece.

His full throated singing suits well for the vilamba kaala kruthis. He had chosen one more composer of Mysuru, K.Vasudevacharya. 'Bhajanaseyaraada Shree Ramuni' in Dharmavathi was enjoyable with a clear diction.

A rarely heard Kruthi 'Nandabalam Bhajare' by Bhadrachala Ramadasa in a rare Raga Bhuja-ngini had a prelude of alapana. The perfect gamakas and the apt spirals made it more colourful.

Muthuswami Dixitar's 'Nanda Gopala' in Yamunakalyani literally makes the listener visualise lovely Krishna on the banks of Yamuna. The beautiful raga Yamunakalyani enhances the mood. The fantastic rendering of Siva Ganesh undoubtedly did the magic.

The main raga of the day was Kharaharapriya. The enthusiastic alapana revealed all the subtle beauty of the raga. The perfect pace he opts for either alapana or Kruthi becomes the focal point of his rendering. He can balance both Madhyama kaala and Vilamba kaala equally well. He does not unnecessarily yield to speed. That is a plus point in his singing.

Tyagaraja's 'Nadachi nadachi' was emotionally charged. Young Shruthi did not lag behind in contributing to the success of the Kutcheri. P.S. Shreedhar and senior percussionist V.S. Ramesh lended a strong support to the vocalist.

Kulasekhar Alwar's Pasuram in Hamsanandi was soothing before a daasara Pada 'Tirupathi Venkata Ramana' by Purandara Dasa. The curtains came down with a Thillana in Hamir-kalyani by T.N. Seshagopalan.

WORD OF THE DAY

Ephemeral

Pronunciation: ih-FEM-uh-rul.
Meaning: Ephemeral means "lasting a very short time."
Origin: In its aquatic immature stages, the mayfly (order Ephemeroptera) has all the time in the world—or not quite: among the approximately 2,500 species of mayflies, some have as much as two years, but a year is more common. But in its adult phase, the typical mayfly hatches, takes wing for the first time, mates, and dies within the span of a few short hours. This briefest of heydays makes the insect a potent symbol of life's ephemeral nature. When ephemeral (from the Greek word ephēmeros, meaning "lasting a day") first appeared in print in English in the late 16th century, it was a scientific term applied to short-term fevers, and later, to organisms (such as insects and flowers) with very short life spans. Soon after that, it acquired an extended sense referring to anything fleeting and short-lived, as in "ephemeral pleasures."
Example: "The varieties available at the plant sale include spring ephemeral wildflowers, which bloom a short period of time in the spring...." — Cris Belle, WJW Fox 8 News (Cleveland, Ohio), 2 May 2022.

THE ODD WORD

Echinate

Like a hedgehog; prickly.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Tongue-in-cheek

Meaning: The phrase 'Tongue-in-cheek' is used to imply that a statement is not seriously intended.
Origin: To put one's tongue into one's cheek was formerly a non-verbal method of expressing contempt. By 1842, the expression as well as the phrase acquired their contemporary meaning, indicating that a statement should not be taken seriously.
Example: "After waiting in line for thirty minutes, I failed to appreciate the clerk's tongue-in-cheek comment regarding bothersome customers."

Celebration of First Graduation Ceremony at Mahajana College

Mysuru, June 8- The First Graduation Ceremony of SBRR Mahajana First Grade College (Autonomous), Jayalakshmipuram, Mysuru, was held on June 4 at its Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam Auditorium. Dr. P. Nagabhushan, Vice-Chancellor, Vignan's Foundation for Science, Technology & Research (Deemed to be University), Guntur, Andhra Pradesh, delivered the Graduates' Day address.

Congratulating the rank holders and other graduates, he said "If you want to shine like a sun first burn like a sun. The only good reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what you are going to give to life."

He suggested students to remain content while having great ambitions, never be swept away by the hurry of climbing up the ladder of success. Success shall come gradually with effort and not by ambition. You should bear in mind that ambition alone with desire is an enemy but ambition with necessary hard work and acceptance of limitation is a friend. So make ambition a friend, he advised.

Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, Vice-Chancellor, University of Mysore, who was the chief guest, recalled late R. Vasudevamurthy of SBRR Mahajana First Grade College, for setting an academic standard.

Stressing on the need for a value-based education for motivating the young minds, he said students need to have the necessary courage to deal with difficulties that might arise in life.

Mahajana Education Society (MES) President T. Muralidhar Bhagavat, who presided, said that Mahajana College provides free education for the students who have secured 95% and above marks for PU and UG.

Dr. C.K. Renukarya, Director, Pooja Bhagavat Memorial Mahajana Post Graduation Centre, instituted cash prize of Rs. 5,000 for 10 top scorers and two medals were instituted by Ramanna in his late son Sukruth's name.

A total number of 274 students have completed their Post-Graduation. Out of them 40 students have secured first class with distinction, 232 students in first class and two students secured second class. All these graduates received their Graduation Certificates by the dignitaries.

Dr. T. Vijayalakshmi Muralidhar, Hon. Secretary, MES, R. Manjunatha, Controller of Examinations, Dr. S.R. Ramesh, Academic Advisor & CEO, Prof. P. Sarojamma, Administrative Officer, MES, N. Vijayakumar, Treasurer, MES, Lakshmi Bhushan (spouse of Dr. P. Nagabhushan), Members of Advisory Committee and Governing Body and all the Heads of Mahajana Educational Institutions, Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff of UG and PG, and many retired Principals, Special Invitees, Parents, students, NCC Cadets, Volunteers of Mahajana corps were present in the programme.

Dr. H. Sreedhara, Academic Dean of the College administered Oath to the students. Invocation was rendered by Ananya Bhuvan and Team. Dr. C.K. Renukarya welcomed. Dr. B.R. Jayakumari, Principal, Mahajana First Grade College, proposed a vote of thanks. D. Geetha, Sunil and Rachana compered.
